

Eating out

There are numerous places to eat and drink in Canterbury, a lot of chains and independent restaurants and cafes. These are some which are independents and are off the beaten track.

Daytime:

- Don Juan Cafe, Argentinian snacks in Dane John Gardens
- No.35 / Stag / Cosy Club, all on St Margaret Street
- Wildings, Mercery Lane
- Tiny Tims Tearoom, St Margaret Street
- Lazix, Butchery Lane (open air terrace on 1st floor)
- The Veg Box Café, Burgate. Vegetarian
- The Refectory Kitchen, St Dunstons (near Canterbury West Station), amazing brunches

Evening dining: ££

- Pinnochios, on Castle Street close to our hotel. Italian
- No. 35, 35 Margarets Street
- White Hart Inn, Castle Row. Closest pub to us with a garden and lovely food
- Three Tons Pub, Castle Street. Cheap but good sized portions for families
- Pizza Express, get a table by the river or in their outside courtyard
- Weavers, High Street. Excellent steak. By the river and with an outside courtyard. Option to punt on the river and dine in the restaurant. (10% discount with a Canterbury Punting receipt)
- Pho, top of St Margarets Street, Vietnamese
- The Olive Grove, Mediterranean restaurant (10% discount with a Canterbury Punting receipt)
- Posillipo. Italian. Courtyard garden
- Café des Amis (Mexican) & Café de Soleil (Mediterranean), Westgate
- A La Turka, Westgate. Turkish
- The Foundry, Rosemary Lane. Brews and distils their own beer and gin (discount when you produce your Canterbury Punting receipt)
- Chapmans, Westgate. Fish
- The Dolphin Pub with beer garden
- The George at Fordwich, on the river on the outskirts of town
- Fordwich Arms at Fordwich, on the river on the outskirts of town
- Grove Ferry at Fordwich. All 3 Fordwich pubs are on the canoe route from Canterbury out to Fordwich

**£££

- Cook's Tale, award winning modern Indian restaurant. Close to Castle Street.
- The Corner House. Modern British.
- The Abode Hotel. Modern British.
- The Green Room at the Marlowe Theatre. Modern British.

Drinking:

- Auberry Wine Bar, St Margarets Street
- The Abode
- Citi Terrace, on Longmarket (up the stairs opposite Lakeland Plastics)
- The Living Lounge
- The Ballroom